TITANIC SINKS; 1200 DROWN

(Associated Press Cable.)

NEW YORK, N. Y., Apr. 15.—Twelve hundred drowned in the sinking of the White Star liner Titanic. Such is the latest authentic news received from the swarm of newspaper men and rescue ships that rushed to the assistance of the wrecked ocean liner. Details of the affair, the most awful marine disaster in history, have been coming into this city all day, and each detail adds to the horror and distress. The vessel sank four hours after striking the iceberg, in shallow water, between Sable Island, Me. and Cape Race.

Reported Safety Proves False.

From Halifax, N. S., earlier in the day came the report that the Titanic was making her way in under her own steam, and the crowds of anxious, weeping ones at the offices of the White Star line here cheered wildly, believing that the newspapers had exaggerated the reports of the disaster and that the passengers and crew were safe.

It is now known that the Titanic struck the underlying shelf of an iceberg, many hundred feet high, while steaming through a dense "banks" fog. The berg which destroyed the vessel is reported to have been several miles long, more of an ice floe than a berg, save where occasional hummocks of ice jutted upward. No real idea of the size of the berg can be obtained from the reports of the survivors.

Caught in Rushing Waters.

When the steamer struck the berg, the great bulkheads forward exploded under the water pressure like so many guns. The water swept aft, engulfing the steering passengers, drowning them like rats in a hole, as they scrambled and struggled to reach the upper decks.

Among Those Reported Missing.

In the first cabin the scenes of horror were almost as bad. There was more than half a billion dollars represented by the wealth of the first cabin passengers, but it could not save some of them. Benjamin Guggenheim, one of the five famous copper millionaires, was on board. George Widener, son of Peter Widener, traction magnate of Philadelphia, partner of Judge O'Brien and Thomas Fortune Ryan in many schemes of high finance, was returning home after a trip to Europe, where he had been studying conditions. Isidor Straus, multi-millionaire and philanthropist, was on board, and is reported to have been drowned. Charles Hays, president of the great Frank railroad, and a millionaire, is another who is reported missing. Jacques Futrelle, the author, and Dr. Washington Dodge of San Francisco also are among those reported gone. Herman Kieber of Portland and Col. Washington Roebling, son of the famous engineer of the Brooklyn Bridge, are said to be drowned.

REPORTED MURDER OF AMERICANS BY MEXICANS

TUCSON, ARIZ., Apr. 15.—According to reports which have reached here within the last ten days, more than two hundred American women and children have been murdered and robbed by Mexican bandits. It is known that at least one hundred women and children have been shot along the line of the Southern Pacific within a fortnight.

OROZCO WOULD QUIT.

EL PASO, Tex., Apr. 15.—Acting in behalf of his son, Senor Orozco today telegraphed to President Taft, stating that the rebel leader is able and most willing to explain the death of James Fountain, the American executed by his orders some days ago. The father adds that the son is anxious to secure the friendship of the United States.

PRESIDENT RAPS TEDDY'S ATTITUDE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Apr. 15.—In an official statement given out by the Taft headquarters today, Theodore Roosevelt is accused of deliberately trying to disrupt the Republican party for the benefit of his own private ambition.

TO ECZEMA SUFFERERS

We would not recommend any remedy for Eczema, Psoriasis, or any other trouble with the skin, unless we knew that it was scientifically compounded, that its ingredients could not possibly harm the most delicate skin, and that it would give instant relief.

Prescription for Eczema to all our patrons who have any form of skin trouble, because we know what it will do. We can vouch personally for the merits of the D.D.D. Prescription.

If you want instant relief from that torturing, itchy Eczema or would like to have your face freed from unsightly blotches and pimples let us tell you about this D.D.D. Prescription, and the wonderful D.D.D. Soap that is used with it.

Remember, we know the D.D.D. Prescription will give you instant relief. Better call to-day and let us tell you more about this wonderful remedy. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd.
